Self-service terms and conditions

Deposit: We will require a non-refundable deposit, which is usually 50% of the total party cost. The remaining cost will be paid on return of party pots.

Breakages: In the unlikely event of the ceramic ware being broken whilst being fired in the kiln, charges will be waived. Items broken at the party will be charged at the standard rate. Pottery on the go is not responsible for items broken during delivery.

Loan items: A selection of paints, brushes, sponges and other tools is provided for your party on a loan basis. Please treat these items carefully and wash and return them and the paint pots to me with your pottery. Lost or damaged loan items must be paid for.

Collection: Pottery on the go will arrange for collection of the items using a carrier of our choice. Please ensure that all items are securely packed using the same packing materials you received with them. Our delivery charges cover one box only. You may be charged double if you use a second box.

Please sign below to indicate your acceptance of these terms and conditions:
